

Coyote Changes 2010

Sponsored by EarthWays Foundation and Ocean Song

Inviting all 10 to 12 year olds for a week of nature exploration, creativity, developing new skills and adventure! Now in its second year, Coyote Changes is an experiential program for youth who are in transition from childhood to adolescence and was inspired by the magic of Coyote Camp and the wild and beautiful land of Ocean Song. The activities of the week will provide opportunities for youth to develop skills and knowledge that will build self-confidence and creativity as well as an enhanced awareness of nature and themselves.

Join us for a full day on the Four Winds Ropes Course at Ocean Song and a Thursday overnight, as well as these activities...

- | | |
|------------------------|-------------------|
| teambuilding | animal awareness |
| primitive technologies | wildcrafting |
| swimming | storytelling |
| creative arts | wilderness skills |
| nature exploration | basic carpentry |

Our experienced core staff will facilitate participants in cultivating skills and awareness to carry through their lives while playfully engaging with nature and each other. Knowledgeable and skilled local educators as well as Coyote Changes mentors will offer special activities in their area of expertise throughout the program.
