

Coyote Changes 2011

Sponsored by EarthWays Foundation and Ocean Song

Inviting all 10 to 12 year olds for a week of nature exploration, creativity, developing new skills and adventure!

Now in its third year, Coyote Changes is an experiential program for youth who are in transition from childhood to adolescence. It was inspired by the creative vitality of Coyote Camp and the wild and beautiful land of Ocean Song. The activities of the week provide opportunities for youth to develop skills and knowledge that build self-confidence and creativity as well as an enhanced awareness of nature and themselves.

Join us for a full day on the Four Winds Ropes Course at Ocean Song and a Thursday overnight, as well as these activities...

teambuilding

animal awareness

wildcrafting

primitive technologies

swimming

storytelling

wilderness skills

creative arts

nature exploration

basic carpentry

Our experienced staff facilitates participants in cultivating skills and awareness to carry through their lives while playfully engaging with nature and each other. Knowledgeable and skilled local educators and Coyote Changes mentors offer special activities in their area of expertise throughout the program.

Core information

Who: Youth ages 10-12, including those who have not attended Coyote Camp

Where: Ocean Song, 19100 Coleman Valley Road, Occidental

Dates: Monday, June 27 to Fri., July 1, overnight Thursday, June 30th

Hours: Monday to Wednesday, 9am to 4pm., Thursday 9am to Friday at 3pm

Cost: $355 - $395, sliding scale includes full-day ropes course and Thursday overnight

Registration and more information: Contact Lisa Baiter at (707)570-6873 or email lbaiter@yahoo.com, or visit the Ocean Song website for registration materials after 2/25/11 at www.oceansong.org.

